Normally, this Fall Catalog should have arrived with your August issue. However, since Nintendo Power's 100th issue is the September issue, we delayed the catalog a month to give us time to create some extra-special commemorative items. Check out all the NPI00 items and act fast on them! Most of these special items are limited in their availability. Another reason to act fast is because, as always, your next Super Power Supplies Catalog will be arriving with the November issue. Your "window of opportunity" for ordering goods from this catalog is relatively short. Enjoy the catalog!

COOL STUFF!

You can't get it in stores! It's only available to Nintendo Power subscribers. These goods were specially-created to help you look better, sound better and play better! We had a lot of fun creating the goods and we sincerely hope you enjoy them. Ordering is super easy. If you've just got to have something "now!" we can rush your order out to you within a week if you place your order by telephone. For mail orders, don't forget to use these two free Super Power Stamps plus any other Super Power Stamps you've accumulated. Super Power Stamps can only be accepted with mail orders. If something's not workin' for you, don't worry, just send it back. We'll trade you for something else, credit you, or give you your money and Stamps back. No problem. If you have questions regarding a product you've purchased, call us at 1-800-882-0053 and ask for Customer Service. If you're not happy, we're really not happy.
